

Many sporting, cultural and outdoor activities are on the program each week. Students can choose the activities according to their age and preferences. In case of bad weather indoor activities are planned.